JAQUITH NURSING HOME PARTICIPATES IN MEMORY WALK

WHITFIELD—Jaquith Nursing Home staff members were among those participated in the Mississippi Alzheimer's Association Memory Walk on Saturday, October 6. The nation's largest event to raise awareness and funds for Alzheimer care, more than $50,000 was raised by the 600 people attended the event this past weekend.

"I am grateful to have been the captain for our JNH team this year, and look for an even better year next year," JNH Recreation Director Holly Haralson said. "Kudos to the Mississippi Chapter of the Alzheimer's Association for putting on such a great, successful Memory Walk."
