RATLIFF RECEIVES HERO AWARD AT MISSISSIPPI STATE HOSPITAL

WHITFIELD—James Ratliff, Jr. received the Hero Award for February at Mississippi State Hospital (MSH) recently. Ratliff, a Greenville, Miss. resident, is a senior housekeeper at the Crisis Intervention Center in Cleveland.

The Hero Award is given every month to an employee who goes above and beyond the scope of their work, or who through their position performs a heroic act to assist a patient in some way. Employees can be nominated either by their co-workers or by patients and residents

MSH, a facility of the Mississippi Department of Mental Health, was founded in 1855 and facilitates improvement in the quality of life for Mississippians who are in need of mental health, chemical dependency or nursing home services, by rehabilitating to the least restrictive environment, utilizing a range of psychiatric and medical services, which reflect the accepted standard of care and are in compliance with statutory and regulatory guidelines. Accredited by the Joint Commission, MSH is the largest hospital in Mississippi and the largest public psychiatric facility in the United States.
